Famous Fact!

On the morning of October 21, 1805, at the Battle of Trafalgar, Nelson onboard the flagship Victory hoisted the most famous flag signal in naval history, see left. It was meant to encourage the men as they went to war. It did, and Britain won the battle that changed the face of Europe. That's why that statue of Nelson stands in Trafalgar Square today.
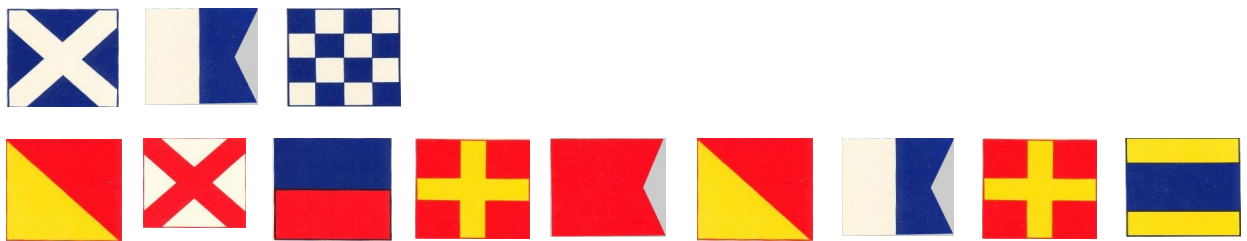

"England expects that every man will do his duty."
